

Panel II: “Gold Value Chain - Integrating Global Best Practices with India-specific Policies”

The following members, who spanned across the Indian gold value chain, participated in the discussion:

- Ankur Goyal, President (Works), MMTC PAMP
- Sharad Jobanputra, Chairman, Sequel Logistics
- Atanu Sanyal, Managing Director, Brinks India
- James Jose, Managing Director, CGR Metalloys
- Nirupama Soundararajan, Co-Founder & Partner, Policy Consensus

Centre Prof. Sundaravalli, Chairperson at IGPC, moderated the proceedings.

The members of this panel delved comprehensively into the entire gold value to evaluate how global best practices can be best integrated with India-specific policies, keeping in mind the consumer trends, the market dynamics, and the policy environment. The session brought forth interesting perspectives about how Indian consumers perceive issues of integrity, best practices and hazards associated with gold refining, the mechanisms to ensure chain of custody, and overall trust deficit.
