IIMA to host 6th Doctoral Colloquium

IIMA, January 7, 2013: Indian Institute of Management, Ahmedabad (IIMA) is hosting the 6th annual Doctoral Colloquium on January 8 and 9, 2013. Prof. Vijaya Sherry Chand, Dean, Alumni & External Relations, IIMA will inaugurate the Doctoral Colloquium followed by Prof. Errol D'Souza, Chairperson, Fellow Programme in Management (FPM) delivering the welcome speech on January 8, 2013 at 9.30 a.m. at the Conference Hall, Kasturbhai Lalbhai Management Development Centre (KLMDC), IIMA Main Campus. Prof. Mike Kotabe, Fox School of Business at Temple University will deliver the keynote address.

IIMA's Doctoral Colloquium is one of the most rigorous event for intellectuals in the country, inviting the best talent in management research. More than 100 PhD students and faculty members from the well-established business schools of India and abroad have registered for the event and several of them will be presenting their research during the event. Five international faculty members and several IIMA faculty members will deliver their talk at the event and mentor students in their research. A doctoral workshop is being held today to precede the Doctoral Colloquium.
